

FLEMING SLAYER TAKEN AT DAYTON ON DRY CHARGE

Man Arrested in Dayton on Moonshine Charge Admits That He Is Edward Gleason, Convicted on Manslaughter Charge in Flemingsburg.

Covington, Ky., Aug. 19. — The lure of wealth to be gained by the manufacture of moonshine whiskey yesterday proved the undoing of a man who registered as Edward Gleason, 64 years old, 1218 Third avenue, Dayton, Ky. According to his own admission to Sawyer Smith, district attorney, and the arresting officer, he faces a sentence of from two to twenty years in the Frankfort penitentiary.

Gleason told the officers that while living at Ewing, Fleming county, Kentucky, ten years ago, he had trouble with a man over domestic matters and that he had shot and killed him.

According to Gleason's story, he was tried and convicted in a charge of manslaughter at Flemingsburg, county seat of Fleming county, and sentenced to serve from two to twenty years in the penitentiary. Just before the officers were ready to take him to prison he managed to escape from the Flemingsburg jail. Since that time he has wandered about the country.

Several months ago Elmer Correll, James Wood and W. C. Huddleston, prohibition agents, received information that a man who went by the name of Edward Schafer was manufacturing moonshine at his home, 1218 Third avenue. The officers called at the house several times but found no one at home.

They decided to watch the house Thursday night, and kept up their vigil until 3 o'clock in the morning. About midnight they saw a man enter the house and they waited until they were certain he had begun to operate still.

Knowing that he was a fugitive from justice, the officers entered the house with revolvers in their hands. They surprised the occupant and made him a prisoner. The officers say they found a thirty-gallon copper still in full operation, fifteen gallons of colored and twenty-three gallons of white moonshine whiskey.

Schaefer, who admitted to officers that his real name was Gleason, was placed in the Covington jail. While the raid was in progress a neighbor of the man turned in a burglar alarm, which brought the Dayton police and fire departments to the house.

Smith ordered Gleason held in solitary confinement until he received a reply to his message of the Flemingsburg authorities. Charges of manufacturing, possessing, transporting and selling liquor and conspiring to violate the prohibition laws were placed against Gleason. Gleason told the officers he did not want to return to Flemingsburg.

RAIN INTERFERES WITH CELEBRATION OF MASONIC DAY

Fireworks Purchased for Masonic Day celebration Will Be Fired on Monday Evening.

The welcome rain of Friday afternoon and evening played havoc with the celebration of Masonic Day at Beechwood Park. Scores of families had prepared their lunches to be eaten at the park but the rains put a damper on the entire celebration and it was impossible to have the big picnic as planned.

Not a complaint was heard as everyone was more than glad to welcome the shower, it being needed much worse than any sort of picnic or celebration.

There was a good sized crowd at the park after the shower, however, to see the picture and to enjoy the dance.

The management of the park has announced that the fireworks which had been purchased for the Masons' celebration will be fired at the park Monday evening and there will be no increase in the regular price of admission.

Dr. Roy Gleib, Chiropractor, leaves today for Davenport, Iowa, where he will attend the Palmer College of Chiropractic, taking a review course in his work. He will be absent until September 4. W&S-Spt4

LEXINGTON BREWERY UNABLE TO MAKE DRINK FOR A YEAR

Federal Prohibition Director Revokes Beverage Permit of the Lexington Brewery Following Hearing Before State Director.

Lexington, Ky., Aug. 19. — The Lexington Brewing Company's permit to manufacture cereal beverages has been revoked, it was announced at state prohibition headquarters today.

The order of revocation was received by State Director Sam Collins from Roy A. Haynes, National Prohibition Commissioner, and a copy of the order was served on Brewing Company officials by registered mail today, it was announced.

The revocation is the result of a hearing before Director Collins August 1 at which the government charged that the brewing company had violated the terms of its permit by manufacturing and selling beer containing more than one-half of one per cent. alcohol.

Under the terms of the revocation order the brewing company cannot operate as a dealcoholing plant for a period of one year and cannot maintain fires in the furnaces of the plant. At the expiration of one year the firm may apply for a new permit to do business.

Under the federal prohibition law there is no legal method by which beer may be manufactured since its manufacture was not allowed for medicinal purposes, and no permit can be given to make beer, it was said at the prohibition office.

Permits are issued, however, to manufacture cereal beverages. The manufacture of such beverages call for the same process as does the manufacture of beer with the additional dealcoholizing process that makes the beverage non-intoxicating by bringing the alcoholic content down to the legal one-half of one per cent.

The revocation proceedings against the local company resulted from the seizure by federal prohibition agents June 5, of a truck load of alleged high proof beer just after dry agents said it left the brewing plant.

Chemists testified that samples taken from the barrels seized contained from 3.78 to 3.84 per cent. alcohol.

Six officials and employees of the company were indicted in June by the federal grand jury on charges of conspiracy to violate the national prohibition act. Trial of those indictments was set for a special term of court in July, but the case was continued before the trial arrived until the January term of federal court. Trial of four soft drink stand operators indicted at the same time was continued also.

Hearing of the revocation proceedings was set for July 12, but was continued by agreement to July 19. Just before that date Commissioner Haynes requested that the hearings be postponed ten days. This request was complied with and the date set for July 28. On July 27 the brewing company obtained a temporary injunction from Federal Judge A. M. J. Cochran restraining Director Collins from conducting the hearing on the day specified.

At a hearing before Judge Cochran to decide whether or not the restraining order would be made permanent the court declined to interfere further in the case and Director Collins announced that the hearing would be conducted August 1, which was done.

SON IS CHARGED WITH THE MURDER OF BATAVIA MAN

Well Known Clermont County Man Dies in Cincinnati Hospital of Gun Shot Wound Inflicted By His Young Son.

With a gunshot wound in his right hip which he said had been inflicted by his son while they were alone at home Friday morning, Frank L. Lieberman, 53 years old, farmer, of near Batavia, Ohio, died on an operating table at Good Samaritan Hospital, Cincinnati, Friday afternoon while physicians were preparing to perform an operation.

A warrant charging the son, Gus Lieberman, 17 years old, with shooting to kill was sworn out and in spite of all that could be done to relieve her suffering, she passed away within space of twenty minute thereafter.

Her sudden passing cast a gloom upon the people of that section. The family some time since had moved from Mt. Orab to Bethel. Five children composed the family with the husband. Wednesday afternoon the body was taken to Mt. Orab where burial was made after services had been conducted at the family home at Bethel.

Cincinnati detectives were searching for the son in Cincinnati Friday night. Information from Batavia was that he had pedaled into Batavia on a bicycle after the shooting and boarded a traction car in the direction of Cincinnati.

The only information that Clermont county officials have is that given by the father. The Lieberman family resides on the Williamsburg pike, two miles from Batavia.

William Barker, their nearest neighbor, a quarter of a mile away, was at home when the son rode up on his bicycle and told him that his father was "very sick." He asked that a physician be summoned immediately and that his mother who was at the Clermont county Fair at Owensville, a few miles away, be notified. The boy then started on his bicycle toward Batavia.

BEE STING CAUSES DEATH OF BETHEL, O., WOMAN

Woman Lived Only Twenty Minutes After Being Stung in the Forehead By Bee in Her Garden at Bethel.

Almost sudden death came to Mrs. James Stroup, aged 58, when in the garden of the family home at Bethel, Ohio, Sunday evening. Without warning she was struck upon the forehead by a bee. The sting becoming acute at once she reached the house, where medical aid was summoned and in spite of all that could be done to relieve her suffering, she passed away within space of twenty minute thereafter.

Her sudden passing cast a gloom upon the people of that section. The family some time since had moved from Mt. Orab to Bethel. Five children composed the family with the husband. RAILROAD STRIKE EXPECTED TO END WITHIN A WEEK

Seniority Proposition, Which Has Been Bone of Contention, To Be Cared for in a "Gentlemen's Agreement," Says Report.

New York, Aug. 19. — The understanding, which has been reached between the committee of railway executives and representatives of the railway brotherhoods for settlement of the shompen's strike will quickly be translated into a definite settlement, ending the strike upon the basis of a "gentlemen's agreement," it is believed here today.

Union leaders regarded the summing-up of the railway executives as a most hopeful sign, and it is believed that the strike will have ended and all men will be at work by one week from today.

Executives representing the 148 railroads of the United States will meet here early next week, probably Tuesday, to give their answer to the proposal submitted by the brotherhoods in behalf of the striking shopcraftsmen.

"The gentlemen's agreement" will restore the seniority rights of the strikers without saying so in plain words. This is expected to reconcile the "die hards" among the railway presidents who vowed they would never give in upon the seniority issue. It is expected that the coal strike will be ended in all fields by the time the shompen are back at work, and the heavy movement of coal along with the transportation of the gigantic crops will furnish enough work to keep all the shompen busy including those who were taken on during the strike and strikers who were taken back to their old

SENATOR REED'S OVATION

Senator Reed, after securing renomination in Missouri as the result of one of the most spectacular political campaigns in the history of that state, returned to Washington to resume his official duties after a long absence on the field of battle, and received a remarkable ovation in the Senate.

The United States Senate is, of course, in some sort of a club, and in spite of the rancorous debates and frequent clashes there is a feeling of good fellowship and a certain comradeship which exhibits itself at times in such an outburst as that which greeted the conquering hero from Missouri.

There is, also, among the Senators a feeling of admiration for Mr. Reed which grows out of the man's undoubted courage, and an independence, which, while often mere insubordination and perversity, is sometimes reasoned, logical, and praiseworthy.

However, those who have followed his course in public life most carefully are bound to agree with Mark Sullivan when he says that is malevolent, savage in attack, violent and vituperative, "more given to epithets than to arguments," and addicted to the wiles of the sophist, distorting the truth and suppressing facts.

That it would be a good thing for the Democratic party if they could retire Mr. Reed, Senator Pat Harrison and Senator Tom Watson, a triumvirate of firebrands and pitchfork politicians, and at the same time a relief to the country, no one can doubt except their own wind.

The Democrats of Missouri evidently agree that they should do their share of the job for they are preparing to place an independent candidate in the field against Mr. Reed.

As about half the Democratic votes which were cast in the primary were against Mr. Reed, it will be a serious matter for him, provided any substantial number of his opponents who have already registered their protest, vote for an independent or support Mr. Brewster, the Republican.

Such a split as now seems to be developing will in all probability give Mr. Spencer a Republican colleague, and add one more to the Republican majority in the Senate. This is probably the best thing that could happen, in the circumstances, for the real health of the Missouri Democracy.

PROTECTION BY DETECTION

The great benefit to be derived from scientific survey of living conditions at any point of community life is that it furnishes a chart by which to guide our living through safe channels. There has been some humor of typhoid fever at a summer camp on the Little Miami. After careful analysis the physician diagnosis locates the danger source in water. But the diagnosis also separates the safe sources from the unsafe in the water supply choices available to this camp. There is therefore at once protection against any continuing danger, proper precaution being taken.

One of the greatest achievements of modern medicine is the harnessing of the typhoid fever germ, along with other menaces of like nature. So greatly has this reduced risk, if intelligence be used in procurement and application of protective information on conditions, that no community, no city, is longer subject to epidemic without recourse. Constant precaution and prompt action assures practical immunity. Cincinnati is a wholesome example in illustration of that happy fact. The Health Board and health officers are alert to keep the city health normal. Their best wishes to the adequacy and efficiency of their work is a healthy city.

GEORGETOWN MAN IS KILLED ACCIDENTALLY

Rifle in Hands of Well Known Georgetown, Ohio, Man Discharged

Accidentally.

Georgetown, Ohio, Aug. 18. — Neighbors and friends who gathered hurriedly at the home of Walter Hanselman in Harmon Heights, Thursday, found him in an unconscious condition, in a drooped sitting position near the garage. Mrs. Hanselman had heard the report of a gun and noting what had taken place gave notice to people close about. Those arriving first found lying across Mr. Hanselman's breast a small rifle, and examination showed that this had been discharged just back of the right ear, the bullet passing twice through his hat brim into his brain. This was about 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon. He was carried into his home by Marshal Lucas and Deputy Sheriff Neu and Dr. R. B. Shelton summoned. Little or no aid could be given, and he lived until about 6 o'clock.

Mr. Hanselman had been ill for some time, having taken special treatment in hopes of recovering his former health. He was an employee at the Pohl Garage for many years, but was forced to give up. That afternoon he had been using the rifle shooting rats, and the belief prevails that when engaged at this, he in some manner accidentally caused the discharge of the gun with effect as stated.

BOARD OF STEWARDS.

THE BLOC HOLDS IT OWN.

Glib political talk followed by non-performance is not passing muster with the farmers today as well as it formerly did and there are indications of increasing political mortality in a good many parts of the Union as a result.

In the last year, there has been much criticism of the agricultural bloc in Congress—criticism proceeding from interests hostile to agriculture or out of touch with agriculture. But this criticism has weighed little with the country as a whole. Proof of it will be seen in the new Congress which will take office in March of next year and will be elected in November. The new Congress will be more pronouncedly in favor of giving a square deal to agriculture and to the farmer than the present Congress.

It is worth while taking note of the fact that the Esch-Cummings transportation act has been as issue in a number of states and congressional districts. The farmers have been insisting for many months on the overhauling of this law.

Numerous men in Congress, Senate and House, who have sat silent and inactive when they might have done something effective to get helpful railroad legislation will be found in due time to be quietly passing out of public life and back into private existence. And while this Congress will evidently do nothing to help solve the troublesome railroad and freight rate problem—a most vital one for the farmers and shippers—the new Congress is quite likely to feel called on to do something.—John Shure in Farm Life.

HORSE OUSTED FROM U. S. CAPITAL.

Not even the changes wrought by the war have made the difference in Washington brought about by the coming of the automobile.

Only a few years ago motor cars were novelties; then came the time when a dozen or more would be parked at the east front of the Capitol when Congress was in session; then began the passing of the carriages and other horse-drawn vehicles from the business and residence sections, and parking space on every street is at a premium.

Official Washington, from President Harding down to the clerk who has been crowded out of Washington to a bungalow across the District line, drives, or is driven, in cars ranging all the way from the presidential limousine to the clerk's "filver."

Prior to the Taft administration the only White House automobile was a runabout driven by Miss Alice Roosevelt who was the first woman to take out a license to drive a car in Washington. Mr. Taft was the first president to make use of a motor car.

The White House has three cars for use of the President and his family—a touring car, limousine and landaulet.

Poor old Dobbin—it's going to be pretty tough for him the next hundred years.—Farm Life.

MANY FLOWERS HERE.

Glacier National Park is one place where the flowers of the Pacific Coast the Alaska Region, the Northern Plains, and the Rocky Mountain Region meet, says the American Forestry Magazine. Another feature that lends variety is the contrast between the relative humidity of the west slopes of the Continental Divide and the aridity of the east slopes. Consequently, no other area has such a great variety of flowers, trees, and shrubs.

MILES OF ICE.

The massive peak, after which Mount Rainier National Park is named looms 14,408 feet above the sea level and 10,000 feet above its immediate base, says the American Forestry Magazine. The area of its glaciers amounts to 48 square miles, comprising 28 glaciers, many of which are between 4 and 6 miles long and vie in magnitude and in splendor with the most boasted glaciers of the Alps.

Rev. M. A. Matthews, D.D., L.L.D., Autocaster

This is the amusement age. The pace for amusement foretells the doom of present day civilization. If you are a careful reader of history you will note the similarity between this age and the one which preceded the fall of Greece and Rome. We are marching toward the same precipice. The increased population of the world and the extra facilities afforded us make it possible for a quicker decline. The people seem to have forgotten all about life's more serious work and are engaged in a mad competition for pleasure. There are more people trying to commercialize this tendency or mania for amusement than ever before, and, for financial considerations they are furnishing more kinds of amusements.

Proprietries are being shattered, principles are being abandoned, and characters sacrificed in the mad rush to reach the Beach of Frivolity and Pleasure.

The old people have become insane on the subject; the middle-aged are intoxicated; and the youth of the land are hopelessly engulfed. Babies are born in the mad house of Jazz and are being rocked in the cradle of indecency.

The amusement mania or pleasure insanity seems to have afflicted eighty-five per cent of the population. They are today spending millions and millions of dollars for a day of folly or a night of moral fatality.

They do not seem to agree with anyone who is trying to cure them of this awful malady. They are not willing to co-operate with anyone who is trying to reform the amusements now being used for the destruction of society.

The Honorable William H. Hays deserves the unstinted praise and support of all Christian people in his efforts to clean the filthy screens and wash out the cesspools of moving picture studios.

Every virtue-loving woman in the land ought to come to his support and demand the closing of every theatre which exhibits any picture with an immoral subject or false coloring.

If you are not willing to support men who are trying to cure the populace of their mad amusement insanity then you should prepare the funeral cortege for the wrecked bodies of your sons and daughters.

Help us to treat your malady, reform your amusements, and direct the people in the road of sanity and moral development.

poem by UNCLE JOHN

When you hear a feller grumble at the hill he has to climb, an' later, see him crumble in despair,—you wouldn't err in judgement, if you bet yer bottom dime, that he has built the cross he had to bear. This thing we call humanity, is full of human freaks, with fital an' imaginative brains. There's very few that's brave enough to scale the highest peaks,—that knows enough to come in, when it rains! With blessin's all around us, we embrace the things the very thing that's sure to leave us worse, an' shet our eyes to everything that's right.

—It is any wonder, that we flounder in the sea, and smaller billows, waters, tempest-tossed? Too often we imagine that our trouble has to be, when we only need the rudder that we lost! We'll find it smoother sailin' if we banish every dread, and cure the imperfections of our own. The trouble's really allers in our little ivory tower,—and trouble's hard to manage—in a bone!

Yr. own Uncle John.

PARK AND HOME NEWS FROM OVER KENTUCKY.

Approximately 600 tons of limestone were crushed for Lincoln county farmers during July, according to County Agent C. B. Elston. The material, which will play a part in the soil improvement work being carried on in the county, will be used on a dozen farms during the coming three months.

Campbell county farmers found it profitable to sell this year's wool crop through a pool, County Agent H. F. Link says. The best grade of wool sold through the association which was organized for that purpose brought 43 cents a pound.

Five Allen county farmers have joined the "Better Sires-Better Stock" campaign being conducted throughout the state by the College of Agriculture extension division and have agreed to use nothing but purebred sires in all their breeding work, according to County Agent A. M. Allen. An effort will be made to enroll 50 farmers of the county in the drive for improved stock.

Grayson county farmers have used a total of 28 carloads of limestone in two months in their efforts to improve soils of the county, according to County Agent R. W. Seare. They have contracted the entire output of a quarry in an adjoining county.

Interest in better livestock is on the increase in Wayne county, County Agent H. J. Hayes says. Six farmers recently were enrolled in the "Better Sires-Better Stock" campaign and will use nothing but purebred sires in all their breeding work, while 14 purebred Jersey heifers have just been purchased by farmers in the county and two purebred Jersey cattle herds started.

LASSES WHITE'S BIG SHOW HERE NEXT WEEK

Big Minstrel Show to Open Local Theater for Season n August Twenty-fifth.

The "Lasses" White All Star Minstrels now in its third successful tour will be the attraction at the Washington on Friday, August 25th. As one of his big offerings this season, second in importance only to "The Blackville" National Guard in Cuba, "Lasses" supplied a distinctly Southern sketch which he has named "Way Down South." Scenically much in promised as it involves an old plantation log cabin where reside Old Black Joe and Aunt Hannah, the fields of cotton in bloom and the majestic Mississippi River with a steamboat race between the Robert E. Lee and the Natchez. The old colored couple are looking forward to the return from college of their three sons. The occasion is one of feasting, song and dance and in the interpretation of its various characters the full strength of the company is enlisted. Aside from its other positive merits "Way Down South" is certain to prove a revelation if considered only from its scenic and electrical standpoints. Associated importantly with "Lasses" this season are "Slim" Vermont "Zip" Lee, and "Bobby" Guyot as comedians while singers include Roscoe Humphrey, Norman Brown, "Nate" Talbot, H. M. Dinkelspiel, Robert Matthews, P. H. Bangher, Herbert Schultz, Al. Tint, Robert Johnson and George Milner the minstrel Tetrazzini.

younger buffalo bulls are casting envious glances at the old fellow. It would be very pleasant, they think, to doze idly beneath a palm tree and be served with fresh cut grasses, or have their wrinkled noses patted by some dark haired senorita.

But Biso has his doubts.

Fifty years ago Rev. Phoebe Hanford was chaplain of the Connecticut legislature, the first woman to serve in such a capacity.

A THOROUGH TEST

One To Convince the Most Skeptical Maysville Reader.

The test of time is the test that counts. Doan's Kidney Pills have made their reputation by effective action. The following case is typical. Maysville residents should be convinced.

The testimony is confirmed — the proof complete. Testimony like this cannot be ignored.

George H. King, prop. grocery store, 615 East Second street, Maysville, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for several years and have been greatly benefited by them. At times my kidneys got out of order and the secretions passed irregularly. I suffered with a severe aching through the small of my back. When I had one of these attacks I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they never failed to cure the complaint." (Statement given November 15, 1916.)

PERMANENT RELIEF. On November 22, 1920, Mr. King added: "The cure I spoke about in my former statement has proven permanent. I haven't had the slightest sign of kidney trouble since using Doan's Kidney Pills."

Price 60 cents, at all dealers. Don't simply as for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills — the same that Mr. King had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

VETERAN MADE SICK ON FIRST RIDE IN AUTO AT 82.

Hazard. — "Squire John Couch, 82, civil war veteran, rode his horse from Big Creek, Leslie county, to Hazard and as the guest of Dr. R. L. Collins took his first automobile ride. "Nice thing to ride in, but it made me mighty sick," was his comment after he had recovered from nausea. He was an intimate friend of Uncle John Shell, who claimed to be 134 years old at the time of this recent death. "Squire Couch never credited the claim saying he was convinced Uncle John was not more than 110 years old.

BIG BUFFALO BULL GOES TO URUGUAY.

Washington, D. C. — Biso is unhappy! He is to be deported, thrust from the land of his birth, torn from his wives and children and doomed to live in exile for the rest of his days.

Secretary of Agriculture Wallace has decreed that he must go; the Forest Service has arranged his transportation and Biso is inconsolable.

Biso is the big buffalo bull that for fifteen years has been the admiration of visitors to the Wichita National Forest and Game Refuge in Oklahoma. The city of Montevideo, Uruguay, has asked that its zoological garden be supplied with an American bison and the Forest Service men who have charge of the buffalo on the Wichita say that Biso will be an excellent representative of this typical North American species whose once mighty herds roamed the great plains from Mexico to Northern Canada.

In 1907 fifteen bison were "planted" in the Wichita National Forest and have since increased to over 150 head. This herd promises to maintain the type and stamina of the original bison, since the animals are kept at all times under natural conditions. They subsist entirely on wild grasses and live within so large an inclosure that they are under practically no restraint.

So Biso has been well content and is reluctant to leave. Yet many of the

RENAKER'S BODY IS EXHUMED FOR EXAMINATION

Court Order Made for Examination of Body of Murdered Winchester Man—Body Disinterred Friday.

Winchester, Ky., Aug. 18.—The body of Leon Renaker, who was slain mysteriously at his home here July 26, today was exhumed and an investigation made of his wounds.

Officers who this afternoon obtained a court order granting permission to exhume the body refused to give out the exact intent of their findings, other than to say the nature of the wounds was the same as was revealed when the body was discovered.

Whether there was any other motive for the action today was not divulged. The body was disinterred under the supervision of the sheriff's office, the police department, H. H. Moore, county attorney, Grant Robinson, who is connected with the Renaker Poultry Company in Richmond, Coroner Matt Bean, Dr. I. B. Ishmael and Oro Slater, a private detective. The examination was not completed until 8:30 o'clock tonight.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

THE SECOND RETURN FROM EXILE.

Ezra 7:10; 8:21-23; 8:31-32.
Golden Text — "The hand of our God is upon all them for good that seek Him."—Ezra 8:22.

The Second Return — The first 50,000 returned under Zerubbabel, but after about seventy-five years were reduced to a pitiable state. At first they prospered but soon their enemies came against them and for fifteen years the work of rebuilding the city and temple had ceased. They fell into careless ways of living and were soon mixed up with heathen and half-breeds of their land. Ezra now asks permission of Artaxerxes to lead his 7,000 spoken of in Sunday's lesson.

Ezra, A True Patriot — God must have a great man when he undertakes to do a great work among men. He has chosen to work through men. In Ezra He found one every whit a man. God could depend upon him. He was a man of sound learning and deep piety and unswerving integrity. About the biggest thing we could say about him is that God depended upon him. Now his nation was in a crisis and the hand of the Lord was upon Ezra. Ezra could not rest until his feet were on the city walls. Persia was powerful. Athens was in her glory. Socrates was a lad of ten years. Art and philosophy centered in the far reaching city of Athens. Pericles had been in power eleven years. The first verse in our lesson shows us that while the things of the world were progressing God was preparing a man in heart and will to do His service.

Ezra's Work. — He begins well by proclaiming a fast, that the people might humble themselves before their God. "And to do it" doesn't sound like the saying of the hypocrite. Some years ago I heard of a preacher who said "Do as I say and not as I do," and another who told the folk how to raise children who had made a complete failure of rearing his own. Such a preacher is a laughing stock. "Physician, heal thyself." The preacher is a leader and should go ahead of his flock. We have too many of the cow-punching tribe, and need divinely guided leaders. Well, the people humbled themselves and were obedient unto their leader. No preacher can do God's work among the people as he should without they follow him, as he follows the Lord. To rebel is to invite disaster. "For his wrath is against all them that forsake Him." Some years before President Lincoln was elected he remarked to a friend it would take a very great man to guide this nation through the conflict he saw approaching. This man reminded him of the fact after his inauguration and asked if he thought he was such a man. He replied that he really was not a great man but "I have faith that God could make me to be such a man." Ezra was wise and strove to see what the plan of God might be, and followed that. In our efforts to do good we should be wise and seek to learn God's plan and keep close to it.

The journey to River Ahava. — The journey to the river Ahava was a journey to repentance. It was here that their faith is increased and they are strengthened. By faith they claim victory, and march on expecting success. Let us too find a place of prayer where we can repent and receive help from our God.

After they had received the answer to their prayers, they started on the long journey. Not by automobiles and train but by horses, camels and asses, and some on foot. After they left the river Ahava it was not all clear sailing but they had a fight on hands. Yet the hand of the Lord was upon them and we read that "God delivered us from the hand of the enemy and of such as lay in wait by the way." As this host fought the good fight of faith so must the Christian fight his way to the new Jerusalem. God can make alien and hostile powers friendly, if we like these meet the situation with prayer on our lips. As these people longed for the city of Jerusalem so must the Christian long for the new Jerusalem. Like Ezra we too are called to be loyal to our God and His Word whether in Babylon or in Jerusalem. May we as Ezra be fitted for service.

FIFTEEN COUNTIES HAVE NOT REPORTED ASSESSMENTS.

Frankfort. — Recapitulations of the assessment of Owen and Hardin counties for 1922, as certified to the State Tax Commission by the county board of supervisors were approved by the commission. Owen county's total assessment this year is $7936,339 as compared with $8,181,866 in 1922. Hardin's assessment this year is $13,099,352 as compared with $13,806,600 last year. The assessments of all but 15 counties of Kentucky now have been approved.
